

Our current 'Do not Call' Law in NJ should remain in place as is even though it is more stringent than the federal program. We have enjoyed the peace of not having unsolicited calls. Relaxing the current laws of our state violates my right to privacy for a service I pay for. We do not need the government given in to the interest of business over the privacy of its citizens.